

6.2 Exemption for Students with HKAL Qualifications

Exemption is given to students with HKAL qualifications for the following modules upon meeting the specified exemption criteria concerned.

Module	Exemption Criteria
English & Communication: Workplace Correspondence (LAN3103)	Students with Grade E or above in the Subject Grade AND the Component Grade of “Practical Skills for Work and Study” in HKASLE Use of English will be exempted from this module
IT Essentials – Services (ITE3001)	Students with Level 3 or above in the Information and Communication Technology (ICT) subject of the Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education (HKDSE) Examination; or Grade E or above in HKALE Computer Studies or Grade E or above in HKASLE Computer Applications will be exempted from this module.
Mathematics for Construction (CON3001)	Students with Grade E or above in HKALE Pure Mathematics or equivalent will be exempted from this module.
Engineering Science for Construction B (CON3004)	Students with Grade E or above in HKALE Physics / Engineering Science or equivalent will be exempted from this module.

6.3 Granting of Module Exemption

Students may be granted exemption on the principle of recognition of prior learning if they can provide documentary evidence that they

- have already obtained a higher award in that module; or
- have previously studied and passed, the same/similar module in another programme.

Depending on nature of the module, it may be necessary for the applicants to demonstrate competence in the modules before being granted the exemption.